

If Only

Words and Music by Gen Bryant

VERSE 1

You could be the hero that saves the day,
You could be the thief in the night.
You could be the breath that could save his life,
But no one turns their eyes.

VERSE 2

She's all alone on an empty night,
No one can hear her cries.
But she opens her heart to a homeless child,
When no one else turned their eyes.

CHORUS

Tell me why? How can it be?
Tell me why we can see?
We're pleading God, give us a sign,
If only we'd turn our eyes to see.

VERSE 3

He waits by the phone every Friday night,
But they're grown now and living their own lives.
Holding only a photo he takes his last breath,
But no one turns their eyes.

BRIDGE

I'm living my own life, in my own world.
Sometimes I don't try hard enough to see,
The ones who are waiting for one small chance,
Or someone to be there for them and guide them through the rain
So they can be all they long to be.

REPEAT VERSE 1

GEN BRYANT

© 2013 Genevieve Bryant
CCLI #7116386
www.genbryant.com